Ya Kouassi Jacques Personal Testimony

Ya Kouassi Jacques Called to be a servant of the Lord, I have a prayer request to deliver my village from the bondage of spiritual covenant with our ancestors to the devil. It has been so long there wasn't a way for any white missionary work in my village. I give praises to the Lord for He answers prayers. His word is eternal and truth. By his grace, and through the power of prayer, many changes are remarkable in my village and I give the testimony as the Glory and honor be given to the lord, our savior Jesus Christ.

God has made for me as answer to my prayers, a divine connection with Steppin Out Missions who have been actively involved in helping with the spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in my native village of Golikro and many others. We now have some pretty strong churches, four hand-pumps in Golikro and two more in other nearby villages where the population gets refreshing and pure water for drinking. We also have a Bible Training Center where we ought to teach pastors and missionaries the basics principles of the Bible, as well as the required skills, or train such as masonry, carpentry, mechanics, welding, sowing and many other skills helpful in the work of a servant. I am grateful for what God is doing for me and, my village, and my region and country at large. I pray for strength and opportunities in my village as a visible testimony of work of the almighty God in as the church wining gradually many souls who were once against Christianity. I thank God for allowing me to represent Him through the ministry of Steppin Out here in Ivory Coast.

I praise the Lord for blessing my life with a wonderful wife (Ya Amenan Julienne), who cares much for my ministry and for children. She always prays for me and looks after the kids in Sunday school here in Golikro. She is a big encouragement for my life and I thank God for her.

We give thanks to God as he blessed us together with a good son (Ya Kouakou Samuel-Raoul), who loves the Lord, and children and having the birthing to carry on the Awana ministry here in Cote d'Ivoire.

In regard of the spiritual challenges that is laid on our way, I exhort my fellow believers in Christ to pray for us continually for success in our duty.

Praise Alleluia to the Lord for he is MIGHTY. AMEN!!!
